Chapter 2 by Gabbathehutt

Roses are red. Violets are blue (and sometimes purple). Faces like you belong in the zoo. Don't worry I'll be there too. I'll be outside the cage watching you.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

Scarecrow in cornfield

Rusted remains of a car

Home now to the birds

Chapter 4 by Luke Meyers

Day forty-seven

Less pigeons than yesterday

And one well-fed kat

Chapter 5 by Shelby Lawerence

Do not love me,

for you should fear me.

Be smart, don't play too hard.

If you truly knew just one of all the things I've done,

Or seen my demons,

oh how you'd run.
You need to go, please go.
before the opportunity's closed
My heart wells up with sorrow, from the things you can't know
The sun is fading, desperately i try to stop the changing..
Go, before it's too late,
The beast inside the moon will awake.
Do not love me,
For you should fear me

Chapter 6 by myGrundle

There once was a man named McBride
Who could fart whenever he tried
In a contest he blew two thousand and two then shit, and was disqualified

Chapter 7 by jeffyb

Why do I try?
The people only enjoy a fart
It makes me want to cry
Where do I start?

Fuck this mess
I don't want to take a part
Its not worth the stress
Can no one recognize words from the heart?

Anyone can write a poem except myGrundle
What he does is literary genius

He cannot find his own words
Chapter 6 was clearly plagiarized

Chapter 8 by jeffyb

Find the answers you seek
Your dreams should not be taken lightly
Own the knowledge that makes you weak
Truth is tricky ever so slightly
And never forget the love you've lost
Don't wait for it to come to you
Stop worrying about those you've crossed
Writing is for those with a different view.
